CHURCH NOTESFIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The Sunday school will present a program of Christmas songs and readings on Christmas eve night at 6:30 o'clock. A Christmas tree for the children will be a feature of the entertainment.

The Prothean Class, Prof. W. E. Moore teacher, and W. G. Admond, President, enjoyed a fine social evening Dec. 17th. This was the culmination of a six weeks contest between the young ladies and the young men. Needless to say the young ladies were the winners, but the young men did the honors in a host gracious manner.

Sunday morning, Dec. 26 Sunday school at 9:45.

At 11 o'clock we will attend the Knight Templar service at the Methodist Church. A Christmas sermon will be preached by the Pastor at 6:30 and a union choir will furnish Christmas music.

CONFIRMED PROOF

Residents of Cookeville Cannot Doubt What Has Been Twice Proved In gratitude for relief from aches and pains of bad backs—from distressing kidney ills—thousands have publicly recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. Residents of Cookeville, who so testified years ago, now say the results were permanent. This testimony doubly proves the worth of Doan's Kidney Pills to Cookeville kidney sufferers.

L. H. Clark, harness and shoe maker, Broad St., Cookeville, says: "My kidneys troubled me for years. I didn't rest well at night, and a dull, weary ache in my back kept me miserable through the day. My kidneys acted irregularly and the secretions contained sediment. My trouble was gradually getting worse and finally a friend advised me to use Doan's Kidney Pills. I procured some and one box entirely cured me. (Statement given January 27, 1908.)"

On June 19, 1918, Mr. Clark said: "I never miss a chance to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as I know the value of them. Doan's put my kidneys in good shape and I have had no return of the trouble." Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Clark had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv't.

AUCTION SALE

Next Wednesday, Dec. 28, beginning at 10 o'clock, R. R. Bockman and S. S. Bellar will hold an auction sale of live stock, farming implements and household goods, wagon, buggy, etc. Everyone interested in buying anything in these lines should attend this sale, which will be held on Mr. Bockman's place, the Cook Springs farm.

STOCKHOLDERS MEETING

A meeting of the Stockholders of the First National Bank, of Cookeville, Tennessee is hereby called to meet on Tuesday, Jan. 11, 1921 at one o'clock at their banking house in Cookeville, Tennessee, for the purpose of electing Directors for the year 1921. D. C. WILHITE, Pres. Cookeville, Tenn., Dec. 10, 1920.

A CHRISTMAS SUGGESTION

Parents—Have you a son between the ages of sixteen and twenty-two?

Do you want his interest stimulated with clean, virile, and instructive literature?

Do you want him to have sane and unprejudiced advice each month from successful business men concerning various occupations, so that he will not waste time in the wrong job when he graduates from school or college?

All this and more, too, is in THE OPEN ROAD. A year's subscription will make an ideal Christmas present for him. If not YOUR son, then your nephew or some other young man in whom you are interested. The magazine itself will be a constant reminder of your thoughtfulness.

Think of it! Over one hundred short stories and articles, and four complete serial novels? In addition to this are things to think about. Looking Over the New Books, Keeping Fit, and many humorous bits here and there in the shape of verse, jokes and story cartoons.

For this wealth of material only three dollars yearly.

Your subscription will be accepted at the office of this paper and forwarded to

GOREE, TEXAS

We are having some cold, rainy weather at present.

J. J. Robins started for Tennessee last night, to see his father and mother.

J. J. Greenwood and family visited J. C. Peek, Sunday.

John Roberts was in town today. Bill Peek bought a cow, recently. Herbert Gaw, who has been in Texas for three or four months, has gone back to Tennessee.

Will ask for a shower of birthday cards for Cleo Moore, Jan. 6, 1921. She will be 3 years old. Address to Miss Cleo Moore, Goree, Texas, Box 171.

Why don't everybody from Cookeville and Algood write to the Herald and sign your name, and make our little paper more interesting.

J. P. Bartlette, I would like to read on more letter from you. I have written you two letters and haven't got an answer yet.

Will close by wishing everybody a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

STONEWALL, OKLA.

Cotton picking seems to be the order of the day. We are having some cold weather in Oklahoma this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen visited Flora and Andy Lavefer last Sunday. Miss Pearl Odum and Mr. Elvis Fisher were married recently.

Mrs. Caroline Lowery visited her mother-in-law today.

School is progressing very nicely at Union Valley.

Mrs. Mary Ashburn visited Miss Lucetta Lavefer one night this week. Columbus Lavefer and Mary and Will Sherrell visited Flora and Andy Lavefer, Thanksgiving.

Miss America Nash, of Silver Point wake up and answer my letter. Mr. Rezie Wilson and wife of Ft. Worth, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bryant, this week.

NO AID FOR NOSE

Science Unable to Improve Human Sense of Smell.

Really, in That Field, the Leading Thinkers of the World Are Completely Baffled—Anyway, Would Knowledge Be Desirable?

Some time ago there was held in England a "Wonders of Science Exhibition" which served to reveal many marvels to the public unfamiliar with the work done with the microscope, the microphone and the megaphone.

The microphone magnifies sound as the microscope does things seen. The megaphone is the instrument used by the scientist in taking pictures of things shown by the microscope. More people are familiar, to some extent, with the microscope than with the microphone. They know it is possible to hear a fly walk or a caterpillar crawl.

Many other wonders of science were shown at Surbiton, but neither there nor anywhere else has science demonstrated its ability to help the sense of smell. It can do marvels for sight, hearing and touch, but not for the humble and useful nose. In that field the accomplishments of science have been nil.

Let a man stand two miles, say, to windward of the point where a herd of caribou will cross an open plain over which a fresh breeze is sweeping and it must be apparent that only an infinitely minute particle of whatever matter may be given off from his body or clothing can possibly reach the nostrils of any one deer in the herd. Yet, if the man is completely screened from sight by a rise in the surface of the ground the caribou will nevertheless catch the taint in the air. They would be warned of the presence of a wolf in the same way.

Yet science is utterly unable to detect anything which the olfactory nerve of the deer senses and identifies. It cannot see with a microscope anything in the air which came from the man. It cannot find any such substance with a chemical test of any kind. Instead of aiding the sense of smell, it is entirely incapable of matching it. Here is another realm for science to invade and subdue; but would the conquest be altogether desirable? It is a question whether the average man needs to smell more things or sense more acutely the things he smells already. It is thought that the gains would not offset the losses under the prevailing conditions of life.

Coins Memorialize Pilgrims.

Models for the Pilgrim half dollars to be issued by the treasury department in commemoration of the tercentenary anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrims were brought to Washington the other day by William Carroll Hill of Boston, secretary of the Pilgrim Tercentenary commission of Massachusetts, and deposited with Ray Baker, director of the mint.

The models are the work of Cyrus E. Dallin, the sculptor, and the designs have been approved by the commission.

The coin will bear on one side the head and shoulders of a typical Pilgrim intended to represent Governor Bradford, with his history of Plymouth colony under his arm, and on the reverse side a representation of the Mayflower. The entire issue of $50,000 coins has been assigned to the commission, which will distribute them through the National Shawmut bank of Boston. National banks in the principal cities of the country will have an opportunity, through the Shawmut, to obtain an allotment of the coins for their respective districts.

The Experiment.

There is a story told concerning a careful mother whose three children horrified her one day by producing for her inspection three exceedingly bilious-looking toffee apples.

"They're very pretty, my dears," she lied bravely. "But really you mustn't eat them. I've heard of little children dying through eating colored toffee apples."

Then she took the sweetmeats away and put them out of reach—as she thought—on a shelf in her dressing room.

She imagined that would do the trick; but early next morning she heard a sound out on the landing, and, going to see who was astray so early, found Elsie trotting along the passage. "What are you doing, dear?" she asked. "It's not six o'clock yet."

"Going to see if Lick and Arthur are dead yet," replied the eight-year-old miss. "I'm not."

Made to Suit.

Finley P. Dunne—"Mr. Dooley"—laid down his gorgeous Sunday magazine section.

"It says here," he observed, "that a western scientist is at work trying to transform a black man into a white man, and it says, by Jingo, that the experiment is going to be a complete success."

Mr. Dunne nodded thoughtfully. "Wonderful," he said. "Wonderful! And yet, come to think about it, they've been doing the same thing for a great many years by means of whitewash."

Silent Embarrassment.

"Nobody talks about the bathers' costumes any more."

"No," replied the beach constable. "They've got to be so improper you can't let on you noticed 'em."
